Instructions

The faculty of the College of Arts & Sciences is committed to enhancing student learning by continuous improvement of our courses and our teaching. Your answers to the following questions will be used as part of the evaluation of the course and as part of the evaluation of this instructor. Your comments to the open-ended questions are particularly useful for course improvement, as were those given by students who took this course before you. Note that your answers to these questions are confidential. After final grades are submitted, results of this survey will be shared anonymously with the instructor and the Department Head. Thank you very much for your participation in this important process.

Open-Ended

8

What were the most beneficial aspects of this course? (Please be specific)

(Text/Memo)

- the small zoom discussions, the structure of reading one of the great works.
- Lectures and the weekly notes provided to go along with the reading material was the most helpful in aiding to help understand the content for this lecture.
- The discussions helped me understand the material to a great degree and made the class exciting and interesting

9

What are your suggestions for improving this course? (Please be specific)

(Text/Memo)

- Since the journals are at a higher level than in course under 400 level, I am not sure how this would work, but I would have liked to write on each book in Plato. Possible a formal essay one week then next week a less formal one?
- A quick lecture on the essay writing guidelines would have helped a lot, as a quick discussion during office hours improved my understanding more than reading them.
